

FEW THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT OUR FEES

- We offer the most affordable fees in the field of counseling and psychotherapy training across the world because of consideration for the economic capacity of the citizens of our location.
- While Most counseling training across the world is strictly online, we operate a hybrid training system where our students can come physically or join our highly interactive and educative classes via Zoom from any part of the world at no extra cost.
- We have carefully selected a set of fantastic tutors who are professionals in counseling and psychology with amazing teaching styles and a deep understanding of counseling and psychology as well as a passion for the courses without extra fees.
- We don't just tutor, we hold your hands till you can begin your practice with ease as we make sure you get it right with the application of counseling theories to real-life scenarios without charging any extra fee.
- We give you reading materials that are carefully researched and professionally put together for easier assimilation and application to your counseling practice all at no extra cost.
- Payments can be made in installments, especially for part-time classes to make it easier for students
- Our Certificate is strong and widely recognized internationally because we put extra effort into training our students giving you the leverage to be professionally equipped to practice in any part of the world all at a very affordable fee.